Challenging:

Jediah Carling

Class of 2009
BS, Business Management
Gainesville, Georgia

I am married and the parent of a beautiful 3-year-old boy. While I am in school, I also work for Brenau full time, and my goal is to own my own company one day.

Convenience and versatility of programs were the two most compelling factors in my decision to attend, and my Brenau education has really opened the door to a world of learning. In my opinion, the greatest thing about online education is that I do not have to sacrifice so much family time in an actual classroom; I am able to multitask family and school.”

The compressed nature of online learning increases the rigor of these courses, each of which can require up to 15 hours per week to complete. All courses also require online “attendance” five to seven days each week.

Convenient:

With no on-campus requirement, Brenau's Online College is particularly suited to those who work full or part-time, travel often, or have other constraints. Brenau brings the classroom to you.

Lashay Jackson

Class of 2007
BS, Nursing
Powder Springs, Georgia

I truly enjoyed my tenure with Brenau University's RN-BSN online program, and I highly recommend it to any individual who is pursuing a BSN degree.

Initially, it was intimidating and challenging, but after my journey, I definitely reaped invaluable rewards: increased self-confidence, broadened thinking, research and evidence-based practice experience, and enhanced clinical skills."

Powerful:

Michelle Mannix

Class of 2008
BS, Criminal Justice
Lawrenceville, Georgia

I work full time. Online classes let me do assignments when it is good for me, without the expense and hassle of driving to class. I like being able to pick between online or campus classes, and Brenau's many satellite campuses close by are also very helpful.

My goal is to join the FBI or Secret Service after I graduate. I hope my degree will allow me to work and travel with the Federal government, to make a difference in the lives of others. My education has already helped me grow with my current company. But the best thing about my Brenau online education—I get to set my own schedule!”
