CAREER AND GRADUATE SCHOOL PREPARATION

FORWARD THINKING

“Career and graduate school preparation are two of the top things that TU excels at.”

ASHLEY J. LEWIS '08

Degree: B.S.B.A. accounting
TU outcome: financial analyst,
GE Capital

“TU’s courses, professional development through seminars and organizational involvement and interactive classroom sessions are outstanding,” says Ashley. “They equip you with exceptional technical, financial and business skills.”

THINK RESULTS

According to The Princeton Review and USA TODAY, TU ranks as one of the nation's 50 “Best Value” private colleges and universities. One reason: the school's emphasis on professional opportunities offered outside the campus setting.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TULSA IS SERIOUS ABOUT YOUR FUTURE. FIND OUT MORE ABOUT HOW WE HELP STUDENTS PREPARE FOR THE FUTURE.

“The best advice I got at TU was ‘don’t be afraid to ask questions with seemingly obvious answers.’”

JULIE MONDA '09

Degree: B.S. biochemistry and Spanish
TU outcome: biology researcher, St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital

“As a new member in a lab, it’s too easy to accept what you hear. But often,” Julie says, “it’s new perspectives that lead to new discoveries.”

CAREERSERVICES The Office of Career

Services offers the skill development and professional placement resources you need to find the right career fit.

SERVICES

- Career exploration and assessment testing
- Career counseling and coaching
- Resume and pre-interview preparation
- On-campus interviews and job fairs
- Job listings
- Evaluation of job offers

EMPLOYERS CONNECT

Employers team with Career Services to recruit TU students several ways: job postings, resume referrals, job fairs and campus interviews.

INTERNSHIPS, YOUR WAY

TU offers internships four ways: paid, academic credit, academic credit with pay and public service for non-profit, service-related experience. Some begin as early as sophomore year.

GOLDEN OPPORTUNITIES

This TU exclusive online job network matches students with internship and professional job openings posted by more than 1,400 employers. Share resumes, schedule campus interviews, register for job fairs and more.

What can I do with my major? Find out how your interests and talents align with career opportunity at www.utulsa.edu/student-life/career-services/resources.

TULSA ADVANTAGE With 380 high tech firms and 54,000 technology jobs, Tulsa (pop. 400,000) offers TU students a powerful network of internships, professional contacts and career opportunities.

In 2008, TU graduates enjoyed a 91.5% success rate for employment and graduate and professional school placement.

At TU, forward thinking means thinking about – and planning for – professional and graduate school success. By any measure – preprofessional programs, internships and scholarships, graduate program and career placement – TU students graduate to successful futures.

PREPROFESSIONALPROGRAMS

TU preprofessional counselors and programs help you make the most of your TU experience. Counseling focuses on undergraduate preparation, making informed choices, and developing meaningful recommendations.

PRE-LAW ADVANTAGE

Access to the TU College of Law on campus offers distinct advantages. A two-semester pre-law experience focuses on applying to law school, entrance exam preparation, recommendation strategies, securing financial aid and careers in the law. Undergraduates can also attend lectures and symposia, use the TU law library and earn law school credit as seniors.

PRE-MED DIFFERENCE

A close-knit program makes it easier for professors to help students shape the best course of study and to write winning recommendations — key factors in TU’s record of medical school acceptance. Some recent examples:

- Baylor University
- Case Western University
- Creighton University
- Emory University
- Johns Hopkins University
- Oklahoma State University
- St. Louis University
- University of Oklahoma
- Vanderbilt University
- Washington University in St. Louis

THINKSCHOLARSHIP TU specializes in undergraduate research, and we are experts at helping students get funding for their original projects, many of which lay the groundwork for further funded research and success in graduate and postgraduate education.

FUND YOUR FUTURE

TU’s Office of Nationally Competitive Scholarships moves outstanding TU students forward in the competition for coveted national scholarships, fellowships and grants. Undergraduate programs pave the way to successful graduate level opportunities.

- Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship (44 awarded since 1995)
- British Marshall Scholarship
- Department of Defense Fellowship
- Elaine Osborne Jacobson Award for Women in Health Care Law
- Fulbright grants
- Harry S. Truman Scholarship

RESEARCH INTO REALITY

From proposal development and grants management to publication and the technology transfer, the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs prepares TU undergraduates for graduate school success by supporting investigative, scholarly and creative activities.

“Combining my interests in Judaism with theater and creating a touring one-man show is something I could only have done at TU.”

JORDAN HERSCHOWITZ '09

Degree: B.A. theatre
TU outcome: writer and actor, founder, Jordy Pordy Productions

“I was able to write, produce, and perfect my show in Tulsa and Europe with TU funding,” says Jordan, who has launched his own theatrical production company. “Having so much support for developing an entirely new play was amazing.”
